00683C00.	CASE RECORDS - MENTAL HEALTH INSTITUTES, CORE TREATMENT	EVT+25	SHSW	Y
-------------------------	---	----------------------	--------------------	-----------------

Purpose: To preserve core documentation of the care and treatment for a longer period of time so that it is available for the counseling of families, adoption search, and patient care.

Content: Case records are those files containing the primary administrative, legal, and clinical records directly related to the events in the admission, treatment, care, and termination of an individual's stay during any one period of care and treatment.

It was determined that core treatment clinical record is:

1. General demographics
2. Discharge summary
3. Psychological data/testing or initial assessment
4. Social services history
5. Physician orders and monthly summaries of daily data for cases closed prior to 1985 may also be a core treatment record.

Note: Retention of the complete case record is covered by RDA 683A for 25 years; these core records are retained for another 25 years under this RDA, for a total of 50 years.

Records series contains confidential content per Wis. Stat. § 51.30.

RETENTION: EVENT (Patient discharge or death) + 25 years and transfer to State Archives (WHS)

00683D00.	CASE RECORDS - INTELLECTUALLY DISABLED ADULTS	EVT+8	DEST	Y

Purpose: To provide documentation for the care and treatment of the individual.

Content: Case records are those files containing the primary administrative, legal, and clinical records directly related to the events in the admission, treatment, care, and termination of an individual's stay during any one period of care and treatment.

This record includes, but is not limited to: pre-admission reports and exams, multidisciplinary data, treatment plans, conference summaries, progress notes, flow sheets, medication reports, immunization/laboratory/radiology reports, incident and seclusion reports, height/weight and TPR (temperature, pulse, respiration) charts, death certificate; and ancillary service reports such as therapy, psychological, dental, social services, and outpatient.

Definition: The record must be completed in accordance with Medicaid and Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 134.

At the time of disposition, for all cases where the individual was born or raised at Northern Wisconsin Center, transferred from Sparta, was under guardianship of DHS at one time, was adopted or relative(s) adopted, or parental rights were terminated, the following documents will be transferred to Adoption Search for the expressed purpose of assisting adoption research to meet statutory requirements: Face Sheet, annual physical exams, pre-admission social summary, psychological examination, medical and genetic history, discharge summary.

Records series contains confidential content per Wis. Stat. § 51.30(4) and Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 92.

RETENTION: EVENT (Client discharge, transfer, or death) + 8 years and destroy confidential

00683H00.	CASE RECORDS - HISTORICAL	EVT+50	SHSW	Y

Purpose: The purpose is to preserve records that are determined to be historical by the Medical Records Committee of each facility. This is an optional function but it is envisioned that the committees will each accept approximately five inactive case records each year for preservation.

Any staff member can nominate a case during the active or inactive period for inclusion in the historical records of the facility. The Medical Records Committee will make the final selection and may purge the record. This final selection will be made at the time when inactive cases are scheduled for disposition. See RDAs 683C and 683D.

Content: Nominated cases need to be cases of historical value; cases recording an event, treatment or situation which will be helpful or interesting for medical, administrative or social research. The contents of the file will be determined by the Medical Records Committee.

Dept #	Department Name
RDA #	RDA Title	Retention	Disposition	PII

Note: It is important to maintain this RDA because it provides a history that all facilities were provided the opportunity to preserve historical records. There is also the possibility that one of the facilities may, in the future, want to preserve historical records. This RDA will assist them to accomplish this task.

Records series contains confidential content per Wis. Stat. § 51.30.

RETENTION: EVENT (Closed/terminated/deceased) + 50 years and transfer to State Archives (WHS)

00683J00.	CASE RECORDS - INTELLECTUALLY DISABLED MINORS	EVT+8	DEST	Y

Purpose: To provide documentation for the care and treatment of the individual.

Content: Case records are those files containing the primary administrative, legal, and clinical records directly related to the events in the admission, treatment, care, and termination of an individual's stay during any one period of care and treatment.

This record includes, but is not limited to: pre-admission reports and exams, multidisciplinary data, treatment plans, conference summaries, progress notes, flow sheets, medication reports, immunization/ laboratory/radiology reports, incident and seclusion reports, height and weight and TPR (temperature, pulse, respiration) charts, death certificate; and ancillary service reports such as therapy, psychological, dental, social services, and outpatient.

Definition: The records of a deceased minor are closed at the time of event. The records of a discharged or transferred minor are considered closed when the individual reaches age 20. The record must be completed in accordance with Medicaid and Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 134.

At the time of disposition, for all cases where the individual was born or raised at Northern Wisconsin Center, transferred from Sparta, was under guardianship of DHS at one time, was adopted or relative(s) adopted, or parental rights were terminated, the following documents will be transferred to Adoption Search for the expressed purpose of assisting adoption research to meet statutory requirements : Face Sheet, annual physical exams, pre-admission social summary, psychological examination, medical and genetic history, discharge summary.

RDA is created at the request of the Public Records Board to separate records of minors from those of adults (00683D).

Records series contains confidential content per Wis. Stat. §§ 51.30(4) and (5) and Wis. Admin. Code §§ 134.47(3)(d), 92.03, and 92.06.

RETENTION: EVENT (Closed) + 8 years and destroy confidential

00978000.	MEDICATION ERROR REPORTS	EVT+5	DEST	Y
-------------------------	--	---------------------	--------------------	-----------------

Purpose: To track trends and patterns; to report the facts (who, what, where, why) to meet documentation requirements; to allow the physician to make any subsequent therapeutic decisions necessary; identify points in medication administration where errors are occurring so that teaching, counseling, and/or reinforcement of procedures may be provided to prevent further incidents.

Some facilities have a paper process and others have an electronic process.

The medication error is also noted in the patient's chart, which is covered by RDAs 435-00683A and 00683D.

Content: The data fields on the Medication Error Report (forms F-20416A, F-20416B, F-20416C, or equivalent) include, but are not limited to: name of client, name of medication and dose, cited error reason, error type, person involved, medication route, description of incident, time elapsed before error discovered, physician rating, and plan of action.

The content of these records is confidential health information protected by Wisconsin and federal laws including Wis. Stat. §§ 51.30 and 146.82, and 45 CFR Parts 160 and 164.

RETENTION: EVENT (Date of incident) + 5 years and destroy confidential

Pursuant to Wis. Stat. §§ 252.03, 252.05, 252.11, Wis. Admin. Code DHS § 145.15, and Wis. Admin. Code DHS ch. 145 Appendix A, communicable disease and other notifiable conditions are reported by physicians, laboratories, and local health departments. Records are used for required prevention activities and monitoring of population health status and are also used to develop morbidity trends and other statistical reporting. Records are regularly reported to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Records are contained in the WI Electronic Disease Surveillance System (WEDSS) and include, but are not limited to, name, address, date of birth, marital status, sex, race, ethnicity, medical diagnosis and status of the disease or condition (e.g., laboratory tests, diagnosis, and epidemiological data), relevant vaccination and treatment information, contact investigative information, name of person or agency reporting the case, attending physician, outbreak details including reports, summary data, and line lists. As this is the official method of documentation for reportable diseases for Wisconsin, a permanent retention period is necessary to track chronic diseases and vaccine preventable conditions within the state, document treatments that are frequently required by employers and schools, of which the Department of Public Health is the major provider of this treatment. The official record will be maintained electronically for the full retention period. To comply with Wis. Stat. §§ 16.61(7) and 137.20 for authenticity, accuracy, and accessibility the original input documents will be imaged or reformatted and subject to review, to ensure the images of these applications are electronically stored and the quality of these images is acceptable. Monitoring and reporting of HIV is required under Wis. Stat. § 252.15(7)(b); laboratory reporting requirements for public health is a requirement under Wis. Stat. § 252.05(2). A cooperative effort between health care professionals, laboratories, and public health agencies in Wisconsin provides the state with results of HIV laboratory tests. Records include, but are not limited to, case reports including patient information and treatment information; laboratory reports including laboratory information, type of test, and results. All results and case data are entered in the Enhanced HIV/AIDS Reporting System (eHARS), a national CDC database. Some information is also entered into Wisconsin Electronic Disease Surveillance System (WEDSS), which is then governed by RDA 453B. The official record will be maintained electronically for the full retention period. To comply with Wis. Stat. § 16.61(7) and 137.20 for authenticity, accuracy, and accessibility the original input documents will be imaged or reformatted and subject to review, to ensure the images of these applications are electronically stored and the quality of these images is acceptable. Upon verification of the quality and retention of the electronic images, the input record will be destroyed confidentially. Record series is confidential per 45 C.F.R. pts 160 and 164; Wis. Stat. § 146.38; Wis. Stat. § 252.15(3m). Retention justification: Permanent retention period is necessary because HIV is a mandated reportable condition as a communicable disease, but does not have a cure like other communicable diseases. Because HIV is a chronic communicable condition it is important to retain documentation of all HIV labs and treatments to ensure individuals with HIV are in good care. RETENTION: PERMANENT

01125000. J-1 VISA WAIVER APPLICATION MATERIAL EVT+0/1 DEST Y

Purpose: Wisconsin participates in the Conrad 30 Waiver Program (J-1 Visa Waiver Program) to help communities with a shortage of primary care physicians recruit and retain qualified foreign medical graduates to provide care for three years. The program addresses the shortage of qualified doctors in medically underserved areas by allowing J-1 medical doctors to apply for a waiver of the two-year residence requirement upon completion of the J-1 exchange visitor program, Immigration Nationality Act § 214(1). Federal immigration law (Public Laws 103-416 and 107-273) authorizes each state to request the waivers on behalf of J-1 visa physicians each year. The Division of Public Health is the designated state health agency that can submit recommendations for J-1 visa waivers to the U.S. Department of State. RDA is created due to records being identified during agency review.

Content: The cycle for new applications begins October 1 of each year. Application contents include, but are not limited to, paper applications received from immigration attorneys or providers, data sheet/bar code page for Medical Doctor, employment contract from clinic/hospital, documentation of J-1 status while student, Applicant Physician Assurances (F-43005), attorney representation for medical doctor, I-94 departure record from originating country, Wisconsin medical doctor license, and Health Care Employers Assurances, F-43006). Immigration attorneys retain the original material. The documentation contains personal information such as name, location of employment, country of origin, and discipline specialty. Applications are reviewed by OPFA for content and data is entered into an Excel spreadsheet for trend reporting. Excel documents are kept on program's private computer drive and can be destroyed after submitting report to the Human Resources and Services Administration.

00370000.	WISCONSIN MEDICAID STATE PLAN	EVT+10	SHSW	N
Purpose: To maintain an accurate, chronological file of the State Plan for Wisconsin's Medicaid program as a reference resource/research.
Content: Application to the federal government; submitting proposed amendments to the Medicaid State Plan. Correspondence between Wisconsin and the federal government regarding State Plan amendments (includes requests for additional information and Wisconsin's responses to these requests). A letter from the federal government approving or disapproving amendments or a letter from Wisconsin to the federal government withdrawing an amendment.
Note: In conjunction with state statutes, the Medicaid State Plan is the governing document for administration of the Medicaid program, and being able to trace its history is just as critical as being able to trace historical state statutory changes. The Division of Medicaid Services (DMS) needs to be able to review, trace, and justify all federal approvals since the inception of the Medicaid program to support program precedents and procedures, determine future policy, and support program audits and potential litigation. Reform of Medicaid is frequently on the agenda at both the state and federal level. Some reform proposals would represent fundamental changes to the program, which would require revisiting some of the materials related to the earliest State Plan amendments. Long-term retention is appropriate because of the importance these documents play in governing the program and because of potential future changes to the program that would require DMS to access documents through which the program created in the first place.
The official record will be maintained electronically for the full retention period. To comply with Wis. Stat. §§ 16.61(7) and 137.20 for authenticity, accuracy, and accessibility, the original input documents will be imaged or reformatted and subject to review, to ensure the images of these applications are electronically stored and the quality of these images is acceptable. 01104000. MEDICAID PROGRAM: PAYMENTS FOR COVERED OUTPATIENT DRUGS UND P PERM Y

Manufacturers are required to report quarterly utilization to drug rebate manufacturers (labelers) through quarterly invoices per 42 C.F.R. 447.510. The labelers then send DHS a rebate payment based on that utilization. After the labelers have reviewed the invoice, labelers may question utilization. When they do, it is called a dispute. DHS and labelers then work together to resolve the disputes. Per Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) dispute guidelines, there are no time limits on how far back labelers can dispute. Therefore, DHS needs to retain this information for the resolution of disputes for prior years.

Drug Rebate Invoice Utilization (payments and resolutions) records are stored with the vendor (Gainwell).

Records are confidential per § 1927(b)(3)(0) of the Social Security Act (the Act), and the Medicaid Drug Rebate Agreement requires that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Unit Rebate Amount (URA) information be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed by a state agency (or contractor therewith) in a form that discloses the identity of the manufacturer or any URAs by that manufacturer.

Purpose: Assisted living facility survey records are generated and collected to aid surveyors conducting surveys and investigations (initial, revisit, complaint, self-report, standard abbreviated, monitoring) and in the determination of citations and penalties. Providers include community-based residential facilities (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 83), licensed adult family homes (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 88), certified/registered residential care apartment complexes (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 89), and adult day care and family adult day care facilities (DHS certification standards).

Content: Records include, but are not limited to, statements of deficiencies, identifier keys, and plans of correction; survey-related complaints, self-reports, and/or misconduct reports; facility documents (e.g., staff and client lists, staff background checks, interviews/statements, policies and procedures, menus; client medical records); videos, photographs, and audio recordings; building information; surveyor worksheets, checklists, and notes; internal, facility, complainant, and other relevant correspondence; penalty and appeal correspondence and related records.

The survey packet is the official survey record and is to contain all records relevant to that survey. (Except for self-reports, complaints, and misconduct reports, records located in other locations—e.g., systems, shared drives, personal drives, and personal emails are duplicate records and may not be considered substitutes for what should be in the survey packet.)

Maintenance/Retention: When the survey packets are complete, the records are sent to the DQA Central Records Center (CRC) where they are filed according to provider license number and year of survey. After seven years at the CRC, the yearly survey folder is destroyed confidentially. Retention is reduced from 10-7 years to comply with CMS rules.

Relevant Confidentiality Authority: HIPAA; The Privacy Act of 1974; IRS Internal Revenue Code § 6103(d)(l); 19 CFR § 201.6; Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services Survey & Certification Memo-11-39; Wis. Stat. § 19.36(13).

RDA created for records identified during agency review.

Purpose: This series consists of records that are sent by facilities and others to notify the DQA Bureau of Assisted Living of incidents and concerns regarding the health, safety, and well-being of assisted living residents. Providers include community-based residential facilities (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 83), licensed adult family homes (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 88), certified/registered residential care apartment complexes (Wis. Admin. Code ch. DHS 89), and adult day care and family adult day care facilities.

Contents: Records include ALL complaints, facility self-reports, and accompanying materials, which include, but are not limited to, photos and audio recordings; interviews/witness statements; medical records; police, coroner/ME reports; etc. Self-reports are typically received via email or fax. Complaints are submitted online, in writing, by phone, or in person and are transmitted to a form.

Maintenance: The official record will be maintained electronically for the full retention period. To comply with Wis. Stat. §§ 16.61(7) and 137.20 for authenticity, accuracy, and accessibility, the original input documents will be imaged or reformatted and subject to review, to ensure the images of these records are electronically stored and the quality of these images is acceptable. Upon verification of the quality and retention of the electronic images, the input record will be destroyed confidentially. Each complaint or self-report will be maintained by year in the appropriate "Self-Reports" or "Complaints" facility folder, located in the regional office folders in the DQA shared drive.

EVT+1

DEST

N

PURPOSE: Paper and electronic health care construction documents/materials are submitted to the Division of Quality Assurance for review per Wis. Admin. Code §§ DHS 83.63, DHS 124.30, DHS 131.37, DHS 132.812, and DHS 134.812.

CONTENT: These records include facility applications, pre-design agendas, checklists, plans, plan-related documents, specs/calculations, compliance statements, final inspection reports, and project-related correspondence. Facility types include hospital, community-based residential facility (CBRF), hospice, nursing home, and facility for the developmentally disabled (FDD). Also included are any structures attached to these facilities.

Project Expiration: If health care construction has not begun within one year of plan approval, the project expires and cannot be renewed; a new application, fees, and approval are required. At the one-year expiration date, electronic records are deleted and paper records are destroyed.

Project Completion: A health care construction project is considered complete upon receipt of a Compliance Statement or, in the case of a 6- to 8-bed community-based residential facility, upon receipt of the final inspection report. One year after project completion, electronic records are deleted and paper records are destroyed.

Note: This RDA has been amended to include CBRFs (previously reviewed by DSPS); to make it consistent with DHS processes and requirements by reducing the retention period from three years to one year; and, to remove unnecessary references to DSPS code and retention periods.

01077000.	PATERNITY DOCUMENTS		P	PERM	Y
	PURPOSE: 1. According to Wis. Stat. ch. 69, the State Registrar is the record custodian for all vital records and is responsible for filing, registering, collecting and preserving all original vital records, their indexes, and their amendment/change documents including amendment (correction/change) documents, court orders, paternity actions, and impound/adoption records. 2. The purpose of paternity documents is to add, change, or remove father information on a birth certificate and § 69.15(3) allows for four types of paternity actions including (1) an administrative process referred to as either a Statement of Paternity (SOP) or Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgement (VPA), (2) a court-ordered paternity adjudication, (3) another type of administrative process called a Legitimation and (4) Request to Rescind father information if father information was added to a birth certificate as a result of a VPA. The following is brief description of these records. (1) If mother is not married between conception to birth of a child, the birth certificate must get filed in Vital Records with no father's information listed. Paternity information can be added to birth certificate if a SOP or VPA is filed. (2) Paternity information can be added, removed, or changed on a birth certificate by court order. (3) If the mother and biological father were not married at the time of birth, but married after the birth, a form called Acknowledgement of Marital Child (AMC) or a Legitimation can be filed in Vital Records and the husband information can be added to the birth certificate. (4) If a VPA has been filed in vital records, the parents have 60 days from the date the VPA is filed, or if the parent is under the age of 18, 60 days from the date they turn 18 to rescind the VPA and its information. If Vital Records receives a valid, acceptable rescission form, they will remove the father's information from the birth certificate. CONTENT Legal identifying information including, but not limited to, name on certificate, date of birth, place of birth, parents' information, parents' address and phone number, father's Social Security number, signatures, notary, and/or clerk of court information and dates. Records are confidential per Wis. Stat. § 69.20(2)(a). Lifecycle Language: The Vital Records Office is in the process of converting to an electronic system. Per Wis. Stat. § 69.03(5), once the paper original of a vital record is transferred to electronic format or microfilm reproduction, the paper record can be destroyed. It is the intent of the Vital Records Office to convert all the paper records in this series. RETENTION: Permanent
