Program Purpose: To track and analyze adverse health effects (victims, symptoms, evacuations) which often occur following the uncontrolled release of hazardous chemicals; and to design and implement outreach strategies to reduce the number of incidents and corresponding number of victims resulting from exposures to those hazardous substances. (Pursuant to SS. 250) Program History: Since 1993 this WI HSEES surveillance system has been the only tracking system in the state that has focused on the adverse public health outcomes (victims, symptoms, evacuations) often associated with hazmat releases. The System also identifies chemical names, quantities released, geo coded spill locations, and demographic information, and records the data in a web-deployed, secure, electronic data collection system. Archival Contents and Justification: Hard copy contents are primarily made up of substance release notification forms from multiple agencies including DNR; DATCP; WEM; DCI-Narcotics Bureau; National Response Center (NRC); US Dept. of Transportation (USDOT); and local fire and other documentation that cannot be made part of the electronic reporting system. Anticipate that data entry of existing records will be completed by 2012. Elimination of these files would seriously hinder any complete analysis of the data since not all relevant information is available electronically, especially subsets of certain industrial categories, information about treating hospitals and emergency responders, and other information that will provide perspective and context. Disposition Request: Retain all documents for 20 years after all information is entered electronically, or until January 1, 2032 (approximately 20 years). RETENTION: EVENT (All information is entered electronically) + 20 years and destroy confidential

00453B00. ACUTE AND COMMUNICABLE DISEASE REPORTING (WEDSS) P PERM Y

Purpose: Pursuant to S.S. 252.05 and S.S. 143.03 communicable disease information is reported by physicians, laboratories, and local health departments on form F-44151 Acute and Communicable Disease Case Report of equivalent. These data are used for required prevention activities and monitoring of population health status and are also used to develop morbidity trends and other statistical reporting.

Content: Data fields include, but are not limited to, name, address, date of birth, marital status, sex, race and ethnic origin. A file may also contain medical data concerning diagnosis and status of the disease (e.g., laboratory tests, diagnosis and epidemiological data), name of person or agency reporting the case and attending physician.

Input: Acute and Communicable Disease Case Report (F-44151), or the CDC equivalent, and any related material. Covered by RDA 453.

Output: Surveillance, statistical reports, epidemiologic analysis. Non record no RDA needed.

The electronic record is permanent because there are several chronic diseases tracked in the WI Electronic Disease Surveillance System (WEDSS) that require history so public health does not repeatedly call for an initial consultation/intervention for a condition someone has had and been aware of for 20 years. In addition, the TB program needs the data stored permanently because documentation of this treatment is frequently required by employers and schools many years after the fact; public health is the major provider of this treatment; and the WEDSS is the official method of documentation of reportable diseases for Wisconsin. WEDSS will become the system for collecting childhood lead data in the near future, they require history both to track individual children and lead results and locations that have been investigated to track housing that has not been remediated over time. It allows for applying limited resources where it is most needed. The immunization program needs to track both vaccine preventable conditions over time but also vaccinated persons who get an illness for which they were vaccinated.

Purpose: Wisconsin participates in the Conrad 30 Waiver Program (J-1 Visa Waiver Program) to help communities with a shortage of primary care physicians recruit and retain qualified foreign medical graduates to provide care for three years. Federal immigration law (Public Laws 103-416 and 107273) authorizes each state to request the waivers on behalf of J-1 visa physicians each year. The Division of Public Health is the designated state health agency that can submit recommendations for J-1 visa waivers to the U.S. Department of State. RDA is created due to records being identified during agency review.

Purpose: The purpose of this record is to maintain an accurate account for each inmate weekly profit and nonprofit canteen order.

Content: The Canteen Order form F-26144B and other contracted vendor order forms have data items such as:

1. Inmate name, unit and ID number
2. Quantity and cost of items ordered

The profit orders for inmates are processed on vendor order sheets (bubblesheets) that are mailed to the vendor who then scans them into their system; they are then invoiced and put on the vendor canteen portal. The canteen manager will then take receipts and credit any missing items directly into the portal, then send to inmate accounts where they are paid and/or credited directly to and from the inmate's account, except the F-26144b that is keyed manually into the computer.

The nonprofit orders are posted directly to the unit budget accounts and if there are credits due to errors, those are paid back to the WRC budget account, not the inmates.

Definition: Closed—the order is considered closed after it is determined that the order is correct and items received are checked against items ordered, and the receipt with the order is signed.

00370000. WISCONSIN MEDICAID STATE PLAN EVT+10 SHSW N

Purpose: To maintain an accurate, chronological file of the State Plan for Wisconsin's Medicaid program as a reference resource/research.

Content: Application to the federal government; submitting proposed amendments to the Medicaid State Plan. Correspondence between Wisconsin and the federal government regarding State Plan amendments (includes requests for additional information and Wisconsin's responses to these requests). A letter from the federal government approving or disapproving amendments or a letter from Wisconsin to the federal government withdrawing an amendment.

Note: In conjunction with state statutes, the Medicaid State Plan is the governing document for administration of the Medicaid program, and being able to trace its history is just as critical as being able to trace historical state statutory changes. The Division of Medicaid Services (DMS) needs to be able to review, trace, and justify all federal approvals since the inception of the Medicaid program to support program precedents and procedures, determine future policy, and support program audits and potential litigation. Reform of Medicaid is frequently on the agenda at both the state and federal level. Some reform proposals would represent fundamental changes to the program, which would require revisiting some of the materials related to the earliest State Plan amendments. Long-term retention is appropriate because of the importance these documents play in governing the program and because of potential future changes to the program that would require DMS to access documents through which the program created in the first place.

The official record will be maintained electronically for the full retention period. To comply with Wis. Stat. §§ 16.61(7) and 137.20 for authenticity, accuracy, and accessibility, the original input documents will be imaged or reformatted and subject to review, to ensure the images of these applications are electronically stored and the quality of these images is acceptable. Upon verification of the quality and retention of the electronic images, the input record will be destroyed.

Manufacturers are required to report quarterly utilization to drug rebate manufacturers (labelers) through quarterly invoices per 42 C.F.R. 447.510. The labelers then send DHS a rebate payment based on that utilization. After the labelers have reviewed the invoice, labelers may question utilization. When they do, it is called a dispute. DHS and labelers then work together to resolve the disputes. Per Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) dispute guidelines, there are no time limits on how far back labelers can dispute. Therefore, DHS needs to retain this information for the resolution of disputes for prior years.

Drug Rebate Invoice Utilization (payments and resolutions) records are stored with the vendor (Gainwell).

Records are confidential per § 1927(b)(3)(0) of the Social Security Act (the Act), and the Medicaid Drug Rebate Agreement requires that, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Unit Rebate Amount (URA) information be kept confidential and shall not be disclosed by a state agency (or contractor therewith) in a form that discloses the identity of the manufacturer or any URAs by that manufacturer.

01123000. PROJECT FOR ASSISTANCE IN THE TRANSITION FROM HOMELESSNESS (PATH) EVT+5 DEST N

The Projects for Assistance in the Transition from Homelessness (PATH) is a federal formula grant program, created in 1991 under the McKinney Act, and administered by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). PATH funds serve individuals with serious mental illness, as well as individuals with co-occurring substance abuse disorders, who are homeless. Under the PATH grant program, SAMHSA provides a flexible stream of funding that encourages community commitment to serving individuals who are homeless and living with serious mental illness and helps fill critical gaps in services. PATH, by nature of the selective focus, draws attention to the most vulnerable of the homeless population and allows for implementation of programming to meet their needs. Funding from SOAR is used to complement these activities to ensure support for homeless persons with mental illnesses or co-occurring substance disorders.

00202B00.	BIRTH REGISTRATION DATA - SVRIS (STATEWIDE VITAL RECORDS INFORM	P	PERM	Y

PURPOSE: According to ss. Chapter 69, Vital Records is responsible for filing and maintaining all original birth records and amendments to these records. The records are used by the general public for a variety of purposes including but not limited to: proving citizenship, obtaining a driver's license, passport, social security card, proof for marriage, school, work, and benefits such as social service programs. Birth records are also used by various private businesses such as insurance and financial institutions and also by all forms of government. The electronic birth record has become the official original record and eliminates the paper record. Birth records are accessible from this system by both State and Local Vital Records Offices.

Records are thoroughly edited, assigned a file date and a certificate number and then becomes the permanent electronic file.

Electronic data includes but is not limited to child's name, date of birth, place of birth, parent information and medical birth record information.

Input: The Hospital Birth Worksheet, Part I, form F-05108 (completed by parent(s) and Part II, F-05109 (completed by Hospital).

Output: Includes but not limited to: (1) Published Vital Statistics Reports; (2) Selected data files for research use; (3) Selected data files for use by public health programs; (4) Selected data files for administrative purposes; (5) Copies (certified and uncertified) of the legal portion of birth records for use by the general public, private business and government agencies. Confidential output is protected by signed confidentiality agreements.

Background: The previous RDA (00202) for this series was for the Vital Records legacy electronic system called Isbirth, which was a LAN based system that was implemented on 1/1/1994 and used through 12/31/2010. Effective 1/1/2011, a new web-based system was implemented called SVRIS (Statewide Vital Records Information System). All electronic records data that was stored in Isbirth was converted into and are now maintained on SVRIS. In addition, any partially electronic birth records for the birth years of 1907 through 1993 that were maintained on the Vital Records legacy mainframe system were also converted into and are now maintained on SVRIS.

Type of System: SVRIS is a web-based application on virtual servers.

Back-up: Files are in a MS-SQL relational database. They are backed up daily and DET maintains the back-ups.

00712000.	IMPOUNDED/ADOPTION RECORDS	P	PERM	Y

The purpose of an impound file is to maintain the original birth certificate and the court ordered change document that required the State Registrar to create a new birth certificate for the same individual. Example: When a child is born, a birth certificate gets filed with Vital Records showing the child's name at the time of birth and the birth parent information. If Vital Records receives a copy order of adoption, a new birth certificate is created showing the child's name after the adoption and showing the new adoptive parent information. The original pre-adoptive birth certificate and the adoption court order are impounded, but permanently maintained. According to Statute, an impound file can only be released if Vital Records receives a court order mandating its release or if Vital Records receives a request from the Department of Children and Families Adoption Search Program. If a person has been adopted, the impound file provides the information to get the original identity of an adopted person and their parents and may include the name of the agency that processed the adoption. The agency that processed the adoption may maintain medical and/or genetic information that may be medically necessary for the adopted person or their family. In addition to adoption actions, there are other reasons why impound files are created.

1. If a man is listed on a birth certificate as a husband or father, and a court action determines that the man is not the father of the child, a court order can require Vital Records, to remove the man's information from the birth certificate. Vital Records must impound the original birth certificate, the paternity court order, and any related correspondence.
2. If a man is added to a birth certificate through a Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgement (VPA), and vital records receives a Request to Withdraw a Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgement within the legal requirements of the form, Vital Records must impound the original birth certificate and the Request to Withdraw a Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgement form.
3. If Vital Records receives a Court Order to Change the Name and Sex of an individual, Vital Records must impound the original birth certificate, the name and sex change court order, and any other related correspondence.
4. If Vital Records receives a Misrepresentation of a Fact on a Birth Certificate by an Informant court order, Vital Records must impound the original birth certificate, the misrepresentation court order, and any other related correspondence.
5. If a birth certificate was registered to a surrogate mother and Vital Records receives a surrogate court order form, Vital Records must then impound the original certificate, the surrogate order form, and any other related correspondence.
6. If Vital Records discovers that fraud activity related to any vital record is determined when registering or amending a Vital Record, the State Registrar can order a Vital Records to be impounded.
